Sabina Ostrowska wrote two new units for the Third Edition: Unit 17, Your phone, and Unit 20, Online shopping. The publishers would like to thank Sabina for her contribution to this new edition.

Introduction

To the student

This book will help you learn around 1,250 new words and phrases. You can use the book yourself, without a teacher. You can do the units in any order you like.

Here is what the pages look like:

The left-hand page is divided into sections.

Common mistakes and learning tips are also given on the left-hand page.

42 Come / came / come

Come and go are different:

A Come in / out
We say 'Come in!' when someone knocks at the door of a room. Then they usually knock again to say 'Come out!'.

Come out (or) is often the opposite of come in (or).
A: Knock, knock!
B: Who's there?
A: Big bag.
B: I was in the street.
They say 'Come in!' when they want the guest to come out of the machine.

B Come back and come home
Come home is similar to 'home' for the person speaking, now, and 'come back' for the person speaking, now.
She went away for three days. She came back yesterday.
(She is here again.)
Come back from somewhere
They came back from Italy yesterday.

C Other important uses of come
A: What country do you come from?
B: I'm from Poland.
A: Oh, I see.
B: I'm Polish.
We're going climbing tonight. Do you want to come along? (come with us?)
Come and see me some time. (see me)

COMMON MISTAKE
I come from Poland (NOT ~~remember~~ I'm Polish).

TIP
Write down any prepositions you find with come every time you see them.

Diagrams and pictures show the meaning.

Example sentences show the words in context.

Mini-dialogues show how people use the words in real situations.

The right-hand page practises the new vocabulary.

Pictures, tables and diagrams give variety to the exercises.

Exercises

4.1 Fill the gaps in the sentences.

1 I put money in the ticket didn't come out of the machine.
2 I'm late for work.
3 Oh! Where are you coming from?
4 The teacher came into the classroom and started the lesson.
5 I'm from Spain.
6 Come back to school at 5 o'clock, we'll talk about it then.
7 The children come from school at 4 o'clock.

4.2 What do you think these people are saying? Use words from the box.

comes from come about come here

1  2  3  4

4.3 Fill the gaps using come or correct form.

1 Did you post my letters? They're on the table.
2 She arrived here very Tuesday.
3 We were going to the cinema last night.
4 I came from a small town in Luxembourg.
5 Pierre comes from a small town in Luxembourg.

4.4 Answer these questions for yourself.

1 What time do you come home every day?
2 What time does your mother come home?
3 What do you do when you come into your classroom?

Over to you

Look up three words in a dictionary, write down the meaning and have example for each word. After a week, go through the words again, try to remember them and if you can, write another sentence.

Word	Meaning	Example
come across come round come up

A lot of different exercise types are used: gap-fills, answering questions, matching, etc.

Over to you tasks give you a chance to do more work on the topic of the unit.

The Answer key at the end of the book is for you to check your answers to the exercises after you do them. The Answer key sometimes has more than one answer. This is because there is often not just one correct way of saying something. The Answer key also has possible answers for most of the exercises which are open-ended, or where you are asked to talk about yourself.

The Index at the end of the book has all the important words and phrases from the left-hand pages. The Index also tells you how to pronounce words. There is a list of phonemic symbols to help you understand the pronunciation on page 158.

It is a good idea to have a dictionary with you when you use the book so you can check the meaning of something, or translate a word into your own language. Sometimes, you will also need a dictionary for the exercises; we tell you when this is so. You also need a vocabulary notebook to write down new words. See page 172 for ideas on how to learn and remember these new words.

We hope you like this book. When you have finished all the units in this book, you can go to the next book in the series, English Vocabulary in Use: Pre-intermediate and Intermediate, and after that, to the higher levels, English Vocabulary in Use: Upper-intermediate and English Vocabulary in Use: Advanced.

To the teacher

This book can be used in class or as a self-study book. It is intended for learners at A1–A2 levels of the Council of Europe scale. It aims to take learners with a very basic level of vocabulary to a point where they can use approximately 2,000 words and phrases and teaches them around 1,250 new words and phrases. The vocabulary has been chosen for its usefulness in everyday situations, and we consulted a written and spoken corpus of present-day English to help us decide on the words and phrases to be included. The new vocabulary (on average 20–30 items per unit) is presented with photos or illustrations and explanations on the left-hand page, and there are exercises and activities on the right-hand page. There is an Answer key and an Index with pronunciation for all the key vocabulary.

The book focuses not just on single words, but also on useful phrases and collocations. For example, difficult teaching points such as the difference between do and make are dealt with through collocation (we do our homework, but we make mistakes), and useful phrases (e.g. come along) are presented.

The book is organised around everyday topics, but also has units devoted to core verbs such as get and bring / take. Typical errors are indicated where appropriate, and the most typical meanings and uses are focused on for each key item. The units in the book can be used in any order you like, but it is often a good idea to do blocks of units based round the same topic (e.g. People, At home, Leisure).

The right-hand pages offer a variety of different types of activities, including traditional ones such as gap-filling, but also more open-ended ones and personalised activities which enable learners to talk about their own lives. Although the activities and exercises are designed for self-study, they can easily be adapted for pairwork, groupwork or whole-class activities in the usual ways. For example, where there are dialogues, students can take the speaking parts and practise the conversations, and where the exercises have questions and answers, students can practise asking each other the questions and answering them. See who has the best ideas for recording vocabulary in their notebook. The Answer key sometimes gives alternative answers to the exercises, and also gives possible model answers for the more personalised ones.

When the learners have worked through a group of units, it is a good idea to repeat some of the work (for example, the exercises) and to expand on the meaning and use of key words and phrases by extra discussion in class, and find other examples of the key items in other texts and situations. This can be done at intervals of one to three months after first working on a unit. This is important, since it is usually the case that learners need five to seven exposures to a word or phrase before they can really know it, and no single book can do enough to ensure that words are always learnt first time.

When your students have finished and reviewed all the units in this book, they can move on to the next book in this series: English Vocabulary in Use: Pre-intermediate and Intermediate, by Stuart Redman.

Find more resources for teachers at www.cambridge.org

We hope you enjoy using the book.

Ivan and George and their ⁸....., Anne and Meena, love their ⁹..... and visit them as often as possible.

1.3 Ask a friend these questions. Then write sentences about your friend and their family. For example, Marta has one brother but no sisters.

- 1 Have you got any brothers and sisters?
- 2 Have you got any cousins?
- 3 Have you got any nieces or nephews?
- 4 Have you got any grandparents?
- 5 Do you come from a big family?

1.4 Cover the opposite page. How many family words can you write down in two minutes? Check what you wrote carefully with the book. Did you spell everything correctly? Which words did you forget?

Over to you

Draw your family tree. Then write sentences. Write about your relations. Marta is my mother. Use a dictionary to help you.

good morning

Hello

Hi

good afternoon

How are you?

good evening

Fine, thanks. And you?

Not too bad, thanks.

When we leave someone we usually say Goodbye and also perhaps See you soon! See you soon is quite informal.

When someone goes to bed, we usually say Goodnight. We sometimes also say Sleep well.

Don't say Goodnight when you arrive somewhere, only when you leave.

If you ask for something you usually say Please.

If someone does something nice for you, you say Thank you or Cheers (informal).

Cheers!

Excuse me!

Sorry!

Bless you!

Basic conjunctions

Conjunctions join two parts of a sentence. They help to show the connection between the two parts of the sentence.

conjunction	example	use
and	Kate is a student and she works part-time.	We use and to give extra information in the second part of the sentence.
but	They are rich but they aren't happy.	We use but when the second part of the sentence contrasts with the first part.
or	You can pay by credit card or cash.	We use or when the second part of the sentence gives a different possibility.
because	We went home early because we were tired.	We use because when the second part of the sentence explains why the first part happened.
so	I felt ill so I didn't go to work.	We use so when the second part of the sentence gives a result of the first part.
when	I went to the party when the babysitter arrived.	We use when to say when the first part of the sentence happened.
before	We left before it started to rain.	We use before to show that the first part of the sentence happened first.
after	We went for a meal after we had seen the film.	We use after to show that the second part of the sentence happened first.
if	You can have some ice cream if you eat your dinner.	We use if to say that the first part of the sentence will only happen after the second part of the sentence happens and it may not happen.

B

Other connecting words

These words are useful for making connections between words and phrases.

word	example	use
only	He only sleeps for three hours every night.	We use only to say something is not very big or very much.
like	She looks like her father.	We use like to make a comparison.
than	She works harder than he does.	We use than after a comparative adjective or adverb.
also too as well	He works in the shop and she does also / too / as well .	We use also , too and as well to say something is extra.

Tip

When you learn a new irregular verb, add it to one of the groups of verbs on these pages.

How to learn vocabulary

To learn a lot of vocabulary, you have to do different things.

- 1 Study each unit of the book carefully and do all the exercises. Check your answers with your teacher. Repeat the units after a month, and then again after three months, and see how much you have learnt and how much you have forgotten. Repeating work is very important.
- 2 Keep a vocabulary notebook. Students who regularly make notes in a separate notebook often do better in tests and examinations than students who do not keep a notebook.
- 3 Use different ways of recording things in your notebook. For example, every time you see or hear an interesting phrase, write it in your notebook, and write who said it or wrote it, and in what situation, as well as what it means. Here are some examples:

ready: (person at the door of a theatre, to all the people waiting) ‘Have your tickets ready, please!’ = have your ticket in your hand else: (person in a restaurant) ‘Would you like anything else?’ = more or in addition or different rush hour: (person who is about to leave home for work) ‘I’m going early so that I miss the rush hour’ = the times when there are lots of people travelling to work in the morning or when people are travelling home in the evening

Making notes of the situations words are used in will help you to remember them and to use them at the right moment.

- 4 Use diagrams and other visual aids to help you learn and remember words and phrases. Word bubbles are very easy to draw and can help you remember the different meanings and uses of words. Here is an example for the word play, which can be a verb or a noun:

Charts can also help you to organise information about words. This student has made notes in her vocabulary notebook about useful verbs and the nouns we use them with:

take	a taxi a message violin lessons	catch	a cold a criminal a ball	make	dinner a mistake an appointment	do	my homework somebody a favour my best (to)
